

SANGERSTEVNE (Sandy)

A non-competitive choral festival, open to all choirs, large or small, sacred or secular
www.sangerstevne.org.uk/sandy - 07939 064 247

Sing a programme of your own choice (20 mins) and join with other choirs for a couple of festival pieces (optional)

For all choirs, whether large or small, sacred or secular

Saturday 18 October 2014, 1.30 - 6.30pm
St Swithun's Church, High Street, Sandy SG19 1AQ

Two or three sessions during the time-frame, depending on the number of choirs.

(Whichever session you sing in, please remain for the whole session)

Distribute your promotional literature

During all sessions and the interval(s), there will be running light refreshments in the church rooms. Participation is FREE. There will be an ongoing retiring collection

FESTIVAL PIECES

Most of the music sung by participating choirs is of their own choosing. However, in keeping with the Norwegian origins of Sangerstevner, all participating singers are encouraged (but not compulsory) at the end of each session, to participate in the two simple Festival Pieces: See the Conquering Hero Comes, and Are You Lonesome Tonight? Downloadable copies of these pieces are available on the website, as are rehearsal tracks. Alternatively, they can be sent to you by post.

FURTHER INFORMATION is available from
www.sangerstevne.org.uk/sandy - 07939 064 247

To register for this festival, please either visit the website and register online, or send the form below to:

Sangerstevne (Sandy), 71 Pevensey Road, Forest Gate, LONDON E7 0AR
by OCTOBER 11 (but earlier will help the organising a great deal).
